Profile

Our efficient, knowledgeable General Business Law team creates a strong foundation for our firm to help our private company clients with their corporate legal needs. Lisa assists our corporate clients with all areas of corporate work, including incorporations, dissolutions, registrations, corporate compliance, corporate reorganizations and transactions, and other general matters.

In Lisa's experience, many clients struggle to keep their corporate records and documents organized, which can create confusion and inefficiencies. Luckily, Lisa is adept at organizing documents and has the perseverance and research skills to find the correct documents required to move a matter forward. Lisa also possesses the intuition and experience to anticipate the next step in any file she's working on, which helps projects progress efficiently.

Having grown up in a family of serial entrepreneurs, Lisa's understanding of the corporate world runs deep. Lisa has also worked within the legal and business sector for over 30 years, which provides her with the foundational knowledge to help our clients achieve their goals.
