Profile

Practicality and creativity are key aspects of successful legal solutions in the capital markets and securities arena, but experience within the legal team is just as important. With a career in the industry spanning more than 40 years, Lori brings a wealth of experience and subsequent knowledge to our Capital Markets, Securities, Mergers & Acquisitions Group.

Lori works with our lawyers to provide Canadian and US public companies with a range of services. In particular, Lori assists with private placement financings, reverse takeover transactions, prospectus offerings, debt settlements, and stock exchange listings. No matter the issue at hand, Lori understands that a commitment to deadlines is paramount for our clients. With this in mind, she approaches her work with diligent organization and efficiency.

Lori knew from her high school days that she wanted to pursue a career in law. Her first job was at a securities firm, and she has worked in the field since. Lori's dedication is fueled by the fulfillment she finds in helping our clients achieve their goals by providing quality service.
