Area of Practice

Corporate, Commercial and Real Estate Law with special emphasis on all matters related to strata property.

Profile

Bonnie Elster is a partner with Clark Wilson LLP. As a solicitor and a member of the firm's Business Law Department, the primary focus of her practice is on all aspects of strata property law.

Bonnie graduated from York University in Toronto with an Honours B.A. in psychology and continued her studies at the University of Toronto earning a Master of Arts. After graduation, Bonnie joined the staff of the University of Toronto as a senior administrator. She moved to Vancouver in 1989 and, in 1990, continued her studies, this time at the Faculty of Law, University of British Columbia. Upon graduation from UBC, Bonnie articulated with Clark Wilson LLP and joined the firm following her call to the bar.

Bonnie is a frequent speaker to community groups, property managers and strata property owners on strata property law and a contributing author to numerous strata related publications.
