Profile

Conrad Nest is a partner with Clark Wilson LLP and a member of the firm's Corporate Finance/Securities and United States Law Groups. His practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions and cross-border securities transactions. Conrad has acted for issuers trading on stock exchanges in the U.S. and Canada (including Nasdaq, AMEX, NYSE, TSX, TSX Venture Exchange and OTC Bulletin Board), on a variety of matters including public and private offerings (including offerings made pursuant to Regulation S, Regulation D and Rule 144A), take-over bids, continuations and other business combinations. Conrad also regularly advises a broad range of clients based in the U.S. and Canada with respect to ongoing corporate and securities law compliance and corporate governance matters, including compliance with the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002.

Prior to joining Clark Wilson, Conrad practiced with the Vancouver office of a national law firm and a boutique law firm specializing in U.S. securities law.

Conrad obtained a B.A. degree from the University of British Columbia in 1995 and an LL.B. degree from the University of Victoria in 2000. Conrad completed the first two years of his LL.B. degree at the University of Wales, Cardiff.

Conrad received an award for the highest overall average during the second year of his LL.B. degree.
