Profile

Pratibha Sharma is an associate with Clark Wilson LLP's Business Law Practice Group.

Pratibha obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in 2003 from Simon Fraser University, with a major in Criminology and a minor in Business Administration, and a Bachelor of Laws degree in 2007 from the University of British Columbia.

While studying law at the University of British Columbia, Pratibha was the recipient of course prizes for academic achievement in Contract Law and Legal Writing as well as the University of British Columbia/Canadian Bar Association Financial Services Law Student Achievement Award. Pratibha also represented the University of British Columbia in the International Competition in Online Dispute Resolution, an international mooting competition involving law school teams from around the world. Pratibha and her UBC advocacy team won a silver medal.

Following her first year of law school, Pratibha worked as a student Review Officer in the Review Division of WorkSafeBC (formerly, the Workers' Compensation Board of British Columbia). In her capacity as a student Review Officer, Pratibha conducted reviews of various Board decisions, including reviews of compensation, termination and relief of cost decisions initiated by both workers and employers.
