Designation by the Minister of Education under the Colleges and Provincial Institutes Act

THE JUSTICE INSTITUTE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA, being a Provincial Institute, shall perform the following functions:

- (a) provide courses of instruction which are consistent with identified needs specifically for, but not limited to, Police, Corrections, Courts and Sheriffs;
- (b) Identify the educational and specific training needs for all components of the British Columbia Justice System, including fire services;
- (c) develop a co-operative system of co-ordination between its own programmes and those of the other institutes, colleges, universities, public schools and community-based organizations; and
- (d) provide a provincial forum for discussion and examination of justice and socially-related issues.

Patrick L. McGeer
Minister of Education
