Profile

Every business is unique. Those facing litigation need counsel to craft strategies that are consistent with advancing their unique values, plans and goals. Whether that means dealing with a shareholder dispute, breaches of contract or protecting a company's reputation, Brendan approaches problems in a customized manner that meets our clients' distinct business objectives.

Services

- > Commercial litigation
- > Shareholders' oppression and derivative claims
- > Real estate/development disputes
- > Defamation

Litigation can be a maze for those involved. Brendan deciphers the strengths and weaknesses of a client's claim to create a map from which he cost-consciously navigates the best possible route to a successful endpoint. He works closely with our clients keeping them apprised of the strategy every step of the way.

Brendan recognizes that our clients need someone who can fight for them and as such ensures that his services are results-driven with a distinct goal in target. With a dynamic and resourceful intuition for problem solving, Brendan listens to clients, understands their needs and responds with viable solutions.
