Profile

People need someone to advocate, someone to trust when caught in the oftentimes stressful and challenging circumstance of commercial or construction litigation. Michael is that trusted advocate. He provides practical, well-planned solutions that protect our clients and advance their interests.

Services

- > Construction disputes and litigation
- > Commercial litigation matters
- > Estate disputes and litigation

Whether it is providing timely and concise advice on commercial and construction issues, or in the successful litigation of a multi-million dollar asset recovery claim, Michael's approach is resourceful and tenacious. He works to understand our clients' goals, clearly explain the options available and secure beneficial outcomes.

Michael has represented clients before all levels of court in British Columbia, and prepared materials for use at the Supreme Court of Canada. At every stage of the dispute resolution process, he is committed to finding strategies for our clients to reach resolutions that are timely, efficient, and fair.

For Michael, preparation is the foundation of persuasion-a well-framed argument establishes an early advantage. By thinking critically each step of the way, Michael provides a cost-effective route through the labyrinth of litigation, and helps clients successfully solve their legal problems.
