Profile

Without communication, trust will not develop. Without trust, business will not grow. Christine understands this correlation between effective expression and commercial success, and is able to distill complex legal concepts into clear business solutions for our clients.

Christine has a unique array of experience, having previously worked in-house at a global publicly traded enterprise. She has gained first-hand insight into how each component of a complex organization works with other components as part of the greater whole.

This experience facilitates Christine's ability to address client needs from a comprehensive perspective. She understands the urgencies, challenges and opportunities that businesses face on a day-to-day basis. As such, she is able to provide practical advice that takes into account our clients' corporate circumstances and to bring clarity to complicated matters using straightforward language.
