Profile

Successful outcomes are created by establishing a plan, putting in the practice and dedication and always with an eye on the finish line. As a lawyer and veteran marathon and ultra-marathon runner, Avery trusts this process and applies this method in supporting her clients towards accomplishing their goals.

She takes joy in working with businesses of all types and sizes. When she is met with a problem or issue relating to business structuring or business succession, Avery works to meet a client's needs with responsiveness, respect and practicality.

Her approach begins with mapping out goals of her clients and creating routes to efficiently navigate them. She believes in providing information and solutions in a logical manner. Her practical nature, strong technical and drafting skills and ability to take a complex transaction and break it down into manageable, easy-to-understand components for her clients allows them to focus on creating business growth. The most rewarding aspect of her work is helping to achieve their objectives.

Services

- > Mergers and acquisitions
- > Corporate reorganizations
- > Corporate structuring

- > Private company transactions
- > Business advisory
- > Technology Law
