Profile

Resolving disputes can be a stressful and complex process. With her even-keeled and strong-willed nature, Erin successfully negotiates and settles even the most tumultuous of claims for her clients.

Erin has represented clients at all levels of court in British Columbia. When advocating for their interests, she is vocal and motivated.

She demonstrates intellectual aptitude when dealing with sophisticated construction and coverage matters and has in-depth experience working through high-stakes disputes. Erin is skilled at developing comprehensive assessments for her clients, as well as crafting clear and practical guidance that results in fair and efficient resolutions.
