"After a summer of valuable mentorship, sharpening my legal research skills, and learning about legal practice, I am delighted to be back at Clark Wilson for articles in the litigation rotation. Despite the barriers introduced by COVID-19, I appreciate the efforts of firm in helping us feel engaged and connected as a team as we navigate and adapt to these new challenges together. I look forward to maintaining the meaningful connections I made last summer, and to develop new ones, always learning along the way."
