Profile

When a dispute arises and litigation is the only way forward, businesses need to establish a clear legal path to reach their desired end goal. Denny's dual ability to dissect the minute details while maintaining a big picture view is what helps him solve his clients' most challenging insurance related problems.

His primary focus is to mitigate the issue at hand, then develop a proactive plan that will remediate the situation going forward in the most effective and economical way.

Work Highlights [clients]

When working with his clients, Denny believes an open and organic dialogue is the best way to achieve success. He ventures to work in partnership with his clients to develop collaborative strategies aligned with their overall business objectives. He has worked extensively with insurance examiners and adjusters, giving him deep insights on how to practically minimize an insurer's risk.
