"I'm excited to return to Clark Wilson for articles. My experience at Clark Wilson to date has been engaging and fulfilling. The firm's positive and warm culture made me feel like I was part of the team from day one. I have had the opportunity to work on a variety of different and interesting files, backed by the guidance and support of lawyers and staff. I am positive that the rest of my articles at Clark Wilson will be a valuable experience for my legal career."
