Whether it is a purchase or sale transaction, negotiating and drafting a shareholders' agreement or working with accountants to complete a corporate reorganization, Aaron's focus is to deliver successful results on-schedule and on-budget. This is achieved through a project management approach by setting outcomes, timelines and legal fee budgets. The objective is to be accessible, effective and to deliver value beyond just getting the job done.

Working with local, national and international businesses over many years has helped Aaron refine his ability to identify and assess legal risks. This positively impacts our clients' bottom line because he focuses on the issues that matter most and, consequently, those that have the greatest and most positive impact.

Whether big or small, Aaron understands that the stakes are significant for our clients. The passion that drives our clients also drives Aaron to look out for their interests in the same way that he would his own—with a strong, results-oriented approach.
