Profile

Our people are our greatest asset. It is only through the dedication of our people that we can serve and generate long-term value for our clients. As Director of Human Resources, Katherine has over 13 years of experience providing leadership and guidance in areas, such as recruiting, performance management, employee relations, labour relations, engagement, early talent management, training, benefits, compensation and compliance.

Prior to joining our firm, Katherine's experience was mainly in the construction and engineering sectors. In her previous roles, she worked alongside business leaders in multiple provinces to achieve business and operational objectives from the human capital perspective.

In addition to her Human Resources experience, Katherine also worked in mental health, has an undergraduate degree in psychology and completed the Strategic Human Resources Management graduate certificate program from Royal Roads University.

Katherine is a designated member of the British Columbia Human Resources Management Association, a member of the British Columbia Legal Management Association and Co-Chair of BCLMA's HR subsection.
