Last summer was a great introduction to the people, culture, and various practice groups at Clark Wilson, and I am excited to be back at the firm for my articles! In the first months of articles, I have been invited to work on complex files and transactions in several practice groups. The lawyers and staff are always supportive and provide feedback that allows me to continuously improve and develop my legal skills. I am looking forward to the opportunities for growth and personal development with the team at CW during the rest of the articling year.
