I could not have asked for a better place to article than Clark Wilson. The sense of belonging and support I have felt since Day 1 has been fantastic. No matter the person, no matter the department, everyone at the firm has been willing to help me learn about the practice of law and provide experiences to help me grow in my legal career. I have sat in on client calls, drafted shareholders agreements, reviewed public art contracts, participated in strategy meetings, and researched interesting legal questions across a wide range of practice areas. I look forward to the dynamic and challenging work that comes up every week, and the group of students I have had the opportunity to work with has been collaborative, caring, and convivial. I can't wait to see what the rest of my articling term will bring!
