Profile

Stephanie leads our Office Services team in carrying out the supportive work that allows our firm to provide the exceptional service we pride ourselves on.

Stephanie joined Clark Wilson with seven years of experience in the legal industry. During that time, she gained first-hand knowledge of how every department in a law firm contributes to its overall service and reputation. Stephanie draws on this knowledge to maintain the flawless operation of the Clark Wilson office, allowing our team to consistently deliver excellent service.

Stephanie and her team ensure clients that visit Clark Wilson premises are met with a warm welcome and a moment of calm before business takes place. The team also assists with printing, courier and other administrative services to ensure our lawyers' work is delivered to the right people, in the right place, at the right time.

Besides overseeing office services and the premise-related activities throughout the firm, Stephanie also puts her passion for event planning into practice at Clark Wilson. She helps organize and host events for both our clients and our people.
