Profile

As supervisor of the firm's Corporate Services department, Chad manages our corporate paralegals and oversees the provision of annual maintenance and corporate compliance services to private company clients.

Working closely with our lawyers and clients, Chad's services include providing a broad range of services for all corporate matters, from incorporations to dissolutions and corporate change filings to complex tax-driven corporate reorganizations and restructurings.

With over 15 years of experience as a paralegal, Chad anticipates and responds to our private company clients' needs strategically and efficiently. Our clients appreciate Chad's responsiveness, attention to detail, and depth of knowledge of the administrative processes involved with maintaining a private company in British Columbia.

A natural problem-solver, Chad enjoys uncovering solutions for our clients and providing excellent service at each touchpoint.
