Profile

Shannon oversees three core aspects of the firm's financials; maintaining cash flow, improving the collections process, and ensuring Clark Wilson remains compliant with the regulations that govern the legal industry. These aspects allow our firm to provide seamless service to our clients and offer the most efficient payment solutions based on their unique needs.

Before joining Clark Wilson, Shannon held roles at the Government of Saskatchewan's Ministry of Finance and a commercial brokerage and investment firm. During her career in finance, Shannon has gained vast experience in managing accounting records, audits, and mortgage administration. Her deep understanding of business finances and maintaining sound financial records are an asset to our firm and our clients.

Respect and communication are core aspects of Shannon's work. She appreciates the opportunity to build meaningful relationships with our clients and prioritizes listening first in order to understand their unique needs and circumstances. This approach allows Shannon to better help clients with their payment needs.

Shannon is a Chartered Professional Accountant and achieved her Bachelor of Commerce in Accounting at the University of Saskatchewan.
