Profile

Harkeerit helps our business clients navigate the intricacies of corporate transactions by providing strategic guidance on deal structuring, due diligence, and post-closing matters to ensure seamless and successful outcomes. With a meticulous eye for detail, she helps clients identify opportunities, mitigate risks, and address challenges with sound, practical legal advice. Working closely with business owners, Harkeerit ensures their acquisitions, divestitures, and other key corporate transactions are handled efficiently and are aligned with their long-term goals.

With a diverse legal background spanning business, corporate and commercial, real estate, and private client services, Harkeerit brings clients a well-rounded and integrated perspective.

She assists with drafting and reviewing critical agreements-including share and asset purchase agreements, non-compete clauses, and confidentiality agreements-tailoring them to each client's unique business needs. Her professional experience, combined with firsthand insight from her family's businesses across the province, gives her a deep understanding of the realities of building and growing successful companies. Harkeerit is committed to supporting our clients through all stages of a transaction, from initial negotiations to closing and beyond.
