Scam Warning

Have you received an email bearing my name, but originating from an email address other than @cwilson.com? Does it suggest urgent action needs to be taken to preserve your trademark rights?

It is not from me and not legitimate.

Theresa is a senior trademark agent with over 20 years of experience in the management of trademark portfolios for local Canadian and international organizations, including a number of Fortune Global 500 companies. Her experience spans a variety of industries including sports, breweries, pharma, insurance, and oil and energy.

Theresa routinely deals with all aspects of Canadian trademark work including trademark searches and clearance, domestic trademark filings, Madrid Protocol (international registration) filings, opposition and summary cancellation proceedings, and trademark licensing matters. She also provides trusted guidance to clients developing their trademark portfolios internationally, and regularly helps clients to obtain trademark rights in other jurisdictions.

Theresa also assists with the trademark-related aspects of commercial transactions including trademark audits and due diligence.
